

Quilting with Machines

A Learning Experience

October 18th - 20th, 2007

Presented by OLAQ
(Ohio LongArm Quilters)

Das Dutch Village Inn
Columbiana, Ohio

The Ohio LongArm Quilters Guild is presenting a premier event for quilters everywhere.

Quilting with Machines is the only event of its kind ever to be offered in Ohio or the surrounding area. Our goal is to provide education and inspiration to make your best quilts even better. Learn how to use multiple tools, threads and creative ideas which relate to all forms of free motion machine quilting.

What you can expect at
Quilting with Machines :

Classes will be offered all day Friday and Saturday.

Learn the latest techniques of longarm quilting in classes and demonstrations, with well known faculty members including Jamie Wallen, Jodi Robinson, DeLoa Jones, Kathy McCarty, Jessica Jones, Janice Kiser, Diana Phillips and others.

Learn how to set up your business with Bona Robinson.

Explore color and other basic quilt making techniques with Shirley Stutz.

Have questions on maintenance of your machine? Join Doug Creasy or Dave Jones, as they "show and tell" how to properly maintain, make adjustments and minor repairs to a longarm machine.

Want to know how the professionals do it? Join our panel of longarm quilters in an informative discussion about all things relating to machine quilting.

See class schedule on page 5.
See class descriptions starting on page 6.

On-going FREE demonstrations, all day Friday and Saturday

These demonstrations will cover numerous topics in all areas of machine quilting. Hear professional quilters explain what works and what doesn't. See new products. Learn helpful ways to use tools, maybe even learn a new way to use an old tool. Be inspired by seeing the work of multiple machine quilters.

Vendors Night on Thursday evening

Quilting with Machines will kick off with a shopping experience, from 6 pm to 10 pm Thursday, as vendors display products for machine quilters, as well as fabrics, books, notions, and all quilt related supplies.

Longarm machine dealers will have machines set up ready for you to test drive, obtain pricing information and ask questions. This is the time to see the latest and greatest in machines, notions and other products related to machine quilting.

FREE ADMISSION TO VENDORS NIGHT, plus door prizes will be awarded throughout the evening. Vendors will be in attendance only on Thursday evening.

See complete details on page 4.

Dinner Banquet on Friday evening

Friday evening's banquet features a delicious dinner and socializing with your fellow quilters. Following dinner, nationally known quilt designer, teacher, author and OLAQ member Shirley Stutz shares her story, "She Did What?!"

In addition, members of the Ohio LongArm Quilters have made a truly exquisite quilt using the Feathered Fantasy pattern designed by Shirley, and excitement will peak when the winning raffle ticket is drawn.

See page 11 for details.

Quilt Displays

See quilts from the OLAQ 2007 Challenge "Quilt as Desired". Each quilter started out with the exact same top and then quilted it in their own unique way. See how much difference the quilting makes and vote for your favorite.

We will also have quilts from the "Have A Heart" Quilt Competition to benefit the American Heart Association, sponsored by Meander Publishing LLC, Gammill, Machine Quilters Exposition and Angel Threads Quilting. These quilts will be auctioned online in November 2007, after traveling the US for Special Exhibits.

Details are at www.upquiltmag.com

Class Descriptions

All classes that concentrate on machine quilting will be demonstration classes where the teacher will be using a longarm quilting machine. Even though the machine being used may not be your type of machine, the techniques you learn can be applied to any form of machine quilting on any type of machine. That means you can apply the techniques you learn to your quilting repertoire even if you use a shortarm, midarm or domestic machine.

All classes are shown with a recommended student skill level. (All, Beginner, Confident Beginner, Intermediate). These ratings are meant to identify the type of student who might benefit most from the class, but in no way should they prevent you from taking any class you desire.

Supply lists and/or fees are shown in the description for the class.

Class fees: $35 for two-hour classes
$50 for three-hour classes

NOTE: Both 2 and three hour classes are offered on Friday afternoon. The class hours overlap, so keep this in mind when making your selections.

Quilt to Fill

Friday 8am-10am $35 Class #101

This Class is designed to help anyone who has been hesitant to do freehand quilting. Because the "Quilt to Fill" method gives you some marked boundaries to stay within, it is an excellent method for anyone who has been reluctant to move into doing freehand designs.

Teacher: Jodi Robinson Confident Beginner

Please ask permission from the teacher before taking photographs in a class.

Mystical Cottontracks

Friday 8am-10am $35 Class #102

In this class we are going to hit the cotton quilting "freehand style". Here you will learn some new allovers for edge-to-edge and border treatments, among them including "Flurry of Angels"; and "Hearts Take Flight". We will then visit some favorites from the new Mystical Quilting Adventure Series and shake up some medallions and block motifs 'freehand style'. We will even throw in some metal to really get your customers talking!

Teacher: Jamie Wallen ALL

Basic Drawing for Free Motion Quilting

Friday 8am-10am $35 Class #103

.f you can draw it, you can quilt it! Learn to draw backgrounds and filler patterns that are easily adapted to the quilting process. Sure, we'll cover stippling and basic meandering, but why stop there? Doodling is the first step to becoming a more confident freehand quilter. Supply fee - $5.00 (payable to teacher on day of class)

Teacher: Kathy McCarty Beginner

Frameworks

Friday 10:30am-12:30pm $35 Class #104

Based on the popular Frameworks book, we'll stitch a bevy of border designs to add pizzazz to your quilts. Skinny, wide, simple, elegant, multiples, even those dreaded too full ones --- we'll cover a wide range of styles in this class, even ways to avoid SID'ing them without compromising the finished look--all this and more will be included. Most of these designs work wonderfully for sashing, too! Come join in the fun and learning. In typical Cozy Creations fashion, there are always great samples, helpful handouts and door prizes that include the sampler stitched in the class!

Teacher: Diana Phillips Beginner/Intermediate

Progressive Feathers

Friday 10:30am-12:30pm $35 Class #105

DeLoa named this class Progressive Feathers because that's exactly what you will do. She will start with a very basic feather that even the beginner will not be intimidated by and then become more and more advanced. Then, she will show you how to put the basic feather into swag, heart, circle, triangle and other odd shapes to fit and fill every space, taking it to a new level. You will be anxious to put feathers on everything!

Teacher: DeLoa Jones ALL

Starting a Longarm Quilting Business

Friday 10:30am-12:30pm $35 Class #106

When contemplating opening for business, there are some questions you need to consider. As time permits, we will discuss what you want (goals) out of your business? What skills and weaknesses have an impact on your potential success? Can you manage your time effectively? How do you know if there is a need for another longarmer in your area (market research)? What machine should you buy? How will you finance this new endeavor? Does your bank want a business plan? What type of business entity will you choose (sole proprietor / partnership / corporation)? Where will you set up shop and what will the legal/financial ramifications be (zoning, tax numbers, permits/licenses, and insurance)? How will you get the word out (marketing strategies)? How much can you realistically earn as compared to how much your time is worth in the work force? Will anyone operate this business with you or will you have the need to hire employees or subcontract help? Being aware of these issues before you make the financial commitment to open a business can help you decide whether this is really for you.

Teacher: Bona Robinson ALL

Boxed lunches

are available for a quick and delicious meal.

They are $8.00 each and must be pre-ordered on your registration form.

See page 4 for your choices.

Q & A with Professional Quilters

Friday 1:30pm-3:30pm $35 Class #107

All the Longarm Issues Your Mother Never Told You.

Join Carol Rickard as she moderates an interesting and informative panel of Professional Quilters to bring a lively and fast paced discussion relating to numerous longarm topics. How to load a quilt, plan a pleasing and appropriate quilting design, mark the quilt--or not mark the quilt, and advice on interacting with customers will be a few of the topics thrown at this powerful panel of professional practitioners.

They will also share many common areas of concern, as well as how to accomplish your quilting goals. All of the panelists are full time longarm quilters, who have achieved award winning status, and have quilted hundreds of customer quilts. They will be sharing their vast cumulative knowledge to help quilters who quilt either for others or themselves.

Time permitting, class participants will have an opportunity to ask questions of these professionals...Let the fun begin!

Moderator: Carol Rickard

Panel of Quilters: Dottie Bettiker, Kathy McCarty, Pat Waldron

The Overlooked "B"

Friday 1:30pm-3:30pm $35 Class #108

Backing, batting, border, binding and blocking are five important B's in producing that successful quilt. Shirley will unlock many mysteries of each B, with special emphasis on the most overlooked B. (Do you know which one this is?) Enjoy learning how to block a quilt through a live demonstration. Shirley will also reveal a shocking truth regarding "Rotten Fabric" which will cause you to reexamine every piece of fabric you touch in the future, using a new approach. Participants will delight in a trunk show of her work which will be used to make the points of this lecture/demonstration class.

Teacher: Shirley Stutz ALL

Thread Fusion

Friday 1:30pm - 4:30pm $50 Class #109

Come prepared to learn about a mouth-watering array of techniques and designs that will make your projects sing. In this class Jamie will reveal exciting new textures and teach you how to apply them to new set-ins, sashings and borders. You will also learn Jamie's outrageous fillers to showcase these unearthly delights. Come experience the concept of Thread Fusion.

Teacher: Jamie Wallen ALL

Pushing the Envelope
Friday 1:30pm - 4:30pm $50 Class #110

This class is sure to get your creative juices flowing! Join us in exploring some of the fun, "OUTSIDE THE BOX" techniques that can be done with these machines. You will be amazed at how fun and easy raw edge appliqué with your machine can be using fabric, felt, even silk flowers. We will also explore the creative possibilities of using sheer layers --- you will be amazed by the many stunning effects that can be achieved using all of the wonderful sheers available. We will also do some embellishing --- we will cover couching yarns and fibers, and using Angelina Fibers. We will have examples of how these techniques can be mixed and matched to create unique and artistic quilts and wearables, as well as how they can be put to use in traditional pieces. Door prizes will be awarded --- so you can go home and play!

Teachers: Janice Kiser/Jodi Robinson ALL

Gammill Machine Maintenance
Friday 4pm - 6pm $35 Class #111

Lecture/demo.
 We're going to take out the bobbin winder and see what makes it work, then tune it up to wind perfect bobbins, we will be taking out the hook assembly, seeing how the stitch is made, rebuilding the tensioners, replacing anti-backlash spring, rebuilding the bobbin case, checking motor brushes and belt tension. Then we will be timing the hook and needle, the hopping foot, the rocking finger, the intermittent tensioner, everything that will affect stitch quality and life of your quilter. StatlerStitcher will be included if those participating own a Statler. That will include adjusting drive belt tension, and the options menu. Time permitting we will take questions. We will be using the new service manual. With that as your reference, you will be able to repair that quilter at 2 AM, while trying to get that deadline met. (You can download and print the manual from the Gammill site if you don't already have one.)

Teacher: Doug Creasy ALL

Line Dancing
Friday 4pm - 6pm $35 Class #112

You've heard about it --- now join in the fun!!! This is an interactive drawing class utilizing the quick and incredibly easy and forgiving Line Dancing concept that is based on Barbara Johanna's Continuous Curve Quilting. Few stops and starts, wonderful surprise designs that pop up, no marking needed, and yet it gets even better. We'll take the LD concept further than just following the block lines to show you what a wonderful and incredibly useful tool this is!! Great samples to see, useful handouts and fun door prizes are all included. Check out the 'Line Dancing' folders at:

Most Requested Overalls
Saturday 8am - 10am $35 Class #201

You've seen the book and asked for the class--now you're able to watch as Diana shows you how to stitch this great collection of original freehand designs. We'll start off easy and work into more challenging designs. This class will give you a good selection of designs to aid you in finishing your own or client tops. Clamshell Flowers, Windblown Hearts and Paisley Flowers are a few of the designs featured. You will also become familiar with Cozy's original and easy method of back and forth echoing. Use them for overall quilting, body-only quilting or background fills as well as adapting them to create many more designs for you to choose from. Great handouts and door prizes to include the sampler created in class!

Teacher: Diana Phillips Beginner/Intermediate

Nature Texture and Fillers
Saturday 8am - 10am $35 Class #202

Bring to life house and nature quilts. This class covers everything from wind and pebbles to bricks and rooftops.

Color Me Ugly

Saturday 8am - 10am $35 Class #203

Have you ever said, "I wouldn't put that ugly fabric in MY quilt?" After this audience participation lecture, you will never say that again, but will be out there searching for just the 'right ugly' for the next quilt. Each participant brings 1/4 yd. of ugly fabric, which under guidance and direction, will be transformed from an ugly duckling to a handsome prince. An extensive trunk show will emphasize the excitement a truly ugly fabric can bring to your very next quilt. If you want to find out why your quilts sometimes lack luster, unlock your color creativity with this hands on program. Supply list - A glue stick, 1/4 yd. of UGLY fabric, and equipment to mark and cut with. This can be either marking pencil and scissors, or small mat, rotary cutter and ruler (not longer than 12")

Teacher: Shirley Stutz ALL

Less Stress Feathers

Saturday 10:30am - 12:30pm $35 Class #204

Jodi's "Less Stress Feathers" will allow you to stitch formal style feathers without the STRESS of backtracking. If you like the look of formal feathers, but have been struggling with the backtracking required to stitch them ... or you would like to stitch them in a contrasting thread ... then these feathers are just what you are looking for. Elegant AND easy, what more could you ask for!

Teacher: Jodi Robinson Confident Beginner

Filling in the Fillers

Saturday 10:30am - 12:30pm $35 Class #205

This is a new class that DeLoa has developed for this year. Using basic filler stencils such as crosshatching, clamshell, and others, you will use their basic grid but fill them in to make designs that will make everyone wonder how you did it. Now with new, innovative designs such as dancing pinwheels and flaming clamshells you will never look at a background grid the same.

Teacher: DeLoa Jones Confident Beginner

Bookkeeping, Accounting and Pricing for a Longarm Business

Saturday 10:30am - 12:30pm $35 Class #206

This class will focus on the various methods of bookkeeping available to you. Afterwards, you should be fairly comfortable with the information the IRS will be expecting to receive from you because if you don't know where you're going, how do you expect to get there ??? We will look at what you really NEED depending on the volume of transactions you generate. We will cover the basic, simple shoebox method, off-the-shelf manual systems, ledgers or computerized spreadsheets. The class may include a demo of computerized software and the myriad of informational reports it can generate such as trend analysis, profitability by type of quilting, customer, etc. We will discuss setting up accounts specific to your quilting business and how they translate into your tax returns, managing your inventory, checks/deposits, invoicing, reports, trends/graphing, and pricing as time permits.

Teacher: Bona Robinson ALL

Boxed lunches

are available for a quick and delicious meal.

They are $8.00 each and must be pre-ordered on your registration form.

See page 4 for your choices.

Fast and Fabulous Fun with Shapes

Saturday 1:30pm - 3:30pm $35 Class #207

This is an introduction to the Fun with Shapes mix and matching concept while we stitch up a sampler full of LOTS of great designs to use on quilt tops. We'll then take it a step further to see how easy it can be to create your own fast and fabulous creations. Lots of samples to touch and see, helpful handouts, door prizes that include the just stitched sampler, but best of all, you'll leave the class with LOTS of inspiration and the ability to create an infinite number of your own original designs!

Teacher: Diana Phillips Beginner/Intermediate

Allover Ferns and Feathers

Saturday 1:30pm - 3:30pm $35 Class #208

Learn to doodle in feathers. This class features a freehand feather design that brings together about 7 different elements that can be used separately or all together for your own customized free motion designs.

Freehand Free for All

Saturday 1:30pm - 3:30pm $35 Class #209

Free motion is never freer than when YOU decide your own pattern. This drawing class will give you the foundation to let your creativity flow at the machine. If you can draw it, you can quilt it! Many background fill patterns can be easily adapted to an overall design. Inspiration is all around; add your personal touch to create an edge to edge design that truly is, one of a kind. Supply fee - $5.00 (payable to teacher on day of class)

Teacher: Kathy McCarty Beginner

Adapting Stencils into Continuous Line Designs

Saturday 1:30pm - 3:30pm $35 Class #210

So many of us forget that we have so many stencil designs at our fingertips. These designs are adaptable for machine quilting with a little innovation. DeLoa will show you how to pick stencils to keep a variety, and what to look for when trying to decide if a stencil can work, how to put them in your quilts, marking, and how to fit stencils in borders. You will explore using a stencil traditionally and then add free motion using the stencil as guidelines. Thousands of designs will be workable after this class.

Teacher: DeLoa Jones ALL

In The Beginning

Saturday 4pm - 6pm $35 Class #211

Quilting with pantographs can be a quick and easy way to finish your top. Knowing where to start and stop can be a trick if you don't have a pantograph that fits the size of your top. You will learn some simple tricks to make using pantographs a snap from someone who has quilted hundreds of customer quilts this way. Different types of pantographs will be discussed and you'll see examples of how to deal with the different problems that each one presents.

Teacher: Janice Kiser Confident Beginner

No Mark Borders

Saturday 4pm - 6pm $35 Class #212

Here are 25+ designs that you can quilt in your borders and sashings that are all free motion. Dramatically reduce the time you spend quilting your borders and sashings while learning tricks and tips for working your designs around the corners and down your side borders without taking the quilt off the frame.

Teacher: Jessica Jones Beginner

APQS Machine Maintenance

Saturday 4pm - 6pm $35 Class #213

Dave Jones, certified factory representative for American Professional Quilting Machines, instructs this class on adjusting, cleaning and servicing your APQS Machine. Sure to be fun and enlightening for all.

Teacher: Dave Jones ALL

Using Fabric Paints and Markers in your Quilts

Saturday 4pm - 6pm $35 Class #214

In this class Jodi will share with you the many creative options for using fabric paints, markers, and dye inks to create quilt blocks or whole quilts. There are so many ways these tools can be used to create unique, one of a kind quilts. She will demonstrate how each of the various mediums is used, and then students will move from station to station to try out each item that was demonstrated. We recommend that you wear an apron or over-shirt to protect your clothes. Supply fee - $8.00 (payable to teacher on day of class)

Teachers

Dottie Bettiker (OLAQ Member) Ohio

With 20 years of quilt making experience, Dottie Bettiker began longarm quilting in 2003, and immediately opened a long-arm business, "Just Quilt It." Dottie has studied extensively with world renowned long-arm quilters, and quickly reached the expert level of longarm quilting. Her award winning quilts have been accepted into local and national shows. Her personal attention to detail on every customer quilt has become her trademark with clients.

Dottie quilts on a part time basis for her clients, while maintaining full time employment as a registered nurse. Her expert skills in time management and priority setting help Dottie "get both these jobs done". An active member in The Crazy Quilters Guild, Howland Community Church Heritage Quilters, and OLAQ, Dottie heads many committees, and is always looking for ways to provide education to both new and experienced quilters.

Doug Creasy (OLAQ Member) Ohio

Doug Creasy co-owns and operates with wife Martha, A Touch of Thread Quilting Gallery, a full service Gammill Longarm dealership in Zanesville, Ohio. Doug's six years in the U.S. Navy in the position of Electrician's Mate, 1st Class, and the following 23 years ending as Shop Foreman at Electric Motor and Service, responsible for electrical and mechanical repairs for large industrial plants is serving him well in his new occupation. It comes naturally to Doug to assemble, maintain and repair the longarm machines, since he can't remember a time when he didn't have some kind of assembly or repair tool in his hand. Coupled with his hobby of computers, it was a natural for Doug to love the Gammill, and then the Statler Stitcher. In the beginning, his position was to be that of a helper on weekends. After using all his vacation days and whatever other days he could get, he still could not keep up with the demands of this growing business, so he resigned his full time job to take on a bigger full time job. In addition to being responsible for set-up, assembly, all repair and maintenance, Doug still finds time to offer maintenance classes once each month on the longarm machine, as well as some introductory classes to computerized quilting with the Statler Stitcher.

DeLoa Jones Michigan

DeLoa Jones is the freshest face in the long arm world in quite some time. Her skills and expertise in the quilting world have been a great fit with her new found love of machine quilting. DeLoa, along with the help of her husband Dave, are factory authorized representatives for APQS, American Professional Quilting Systems. DeLoa travels one week a month with APQS, conducting workshop and sales seminars which are held all over the United States.

Jessica Jones Michigan

Jessica Jones is a full time professional longarm quilter and instructor who has been running a successful quilting business for the past five years from her studio in Detroit, Michigan. She has been trained in many creative areas such as art, photography and quilting.

As the daughter of DeLoa Jones, she has acquired many skills and keen insights into customizing quilts to bring out their hidden beauty to make them long lasting treasures for years to come. Jessica has been training and teaching nationally for the past four years and has delighted many students. Her classes bring a fresh perspective with a modern twist.

Janice Kiser (OLAQ Member) Ohio

Janice Kiser owned and managed a production weaving studio, The Ewe Tree, until she began hand quilting in 1997. By 2002, she closed her weaving business and began using her creative talents in the longarm quilting arena. As both her personal and customer quilts began to win awards in multiple shows, her business grew to that of a full time longarm quilter. Her quilting style encompasses all facets available to longarm work. Janice can quickly assess a quilt to determine what type of quilting will best compliment the quilt structure. Finding easy ways to do complicated tasks helps Janice provide customer satisfaction by minimizing time requirements, whether she is working with a pantograph or more complex custom quilting. She teaches these time saving techniques in her classes. In addition to her quilting business, Janice finds time to teach and inspire others in both piecing and quilting. She has done programs for students from many different cultures.

Kathy McCarty (OLAQ Member)

Ohio

Kathy McCarty, an award winning professional longarm quilter from Ashtabula, Ohio, began quilting in 1986. Kathy's personalization of quilting to the quilt design soon put her in great demand by numerous quilters, including those competing in regional and national competitions. In 2002 Kathy opened her business, "A Thread Runs Through It. LLC." and began quilting professionally. Rarely following a pattern, Kathy prefers instead to use her artistic talent in doing custom work, personalizing each individual quilt. In addition to longarm quilting, Kathy also provides lectures to guilds and other groups, and finds time to teach quilting classes. Her lectures provide incredible insight about the relationship between the quiltmaker and the quilter. Quiltmakers and quilters benefit from the insights gained to make every future quilt a work of art.

Diana Phillips

Michigan

In 1977, Diana Phillips moved to California from Michigan where she was bitten by the quilting bug and has been hooked for 30 years. Always fascinated with color and design, she has pieced and quilted hundreds of her own quilts as well as quilting many, many more for clients. She began quilting by hand, moved to a DSM and since 1994, has been a longarmer. She is an award winning quilter for her own and client quilts. In Addition, she created and self-published the very first and largest book series dedicated to freehand quilting with over 20 books available as well as co-authoring the Quilting Variations book series with Jodi Robinson. She began teaching Freehand Quilting a few years ago and recently went to Australia to teach at AMQC 2005. She currently lives in Michigan with her son and Max the Airedale. Many examples of her quilting as well as class samples can be seen at cozy-creations.com and

Carol Rickard (OLAQ Member)

Ohio

Carol Rickard was selected specifically as moderator for the first ever Quilting with Machines Q & A panel, because of her insatiable interrogatory skills. She brings to the panel an incredible experience record of over 27 years as a quilter, with the last five devoted to long arm quilting. Her winning ways have garnered personal ribbons at numerous shows including Lake Farm Park, the Ohio State Fair, and other local fairs. Folk art, primitive and traditional styles predominate her work, as she says she was reared by women who "quilted for cover".

Though Carol operates a home based business, she counts in her clientele numerous quilters from throughout the United States, due to exposure of her quilting on the quilts of nationally known designer Sue Spargo. Carol is currently serving as the Vice President of OLAQ, and has been a regular contributor since the inception of the Ohio LongArm Quilters.

Bona Robinson (OLAQ Member)

Pennsylvania

Bona Robinson has worked as a CPA for many years, both in a tax department and in computer installation/training for various CPA firms clients using a variety of integrated accounting packages. She has taught university-level computer, accounting, and tax classes since receiving her Masters degree. In addition, she and her husband have owned several businesses over the years giving her 'live' experience in small business daily operations. Bona has been using Quickbooks in her longarm business for ten years and has completely customized the setup for specific needs of the longarm business owner.

Jodi Robinson (OLAQ Member)

Pennsylvania

2007 marks Jodi Robinson's tenth year as a longarm quilter. She is currently on the national longarm teaching circuit, teaching hands-on classes at MQS, as well as other shows and shops. Jodi's quilts are consistent winners at both national and local shows, always showcasing new and innovative quilting designs. Her cutting edge quilting encompasses the latest in use of multiple colors of thread, and elaborate stitching. Together with Diana Phillips, Jodi co-authored Quilting Variations, a five book series on various long-arm techniques. She has self-published six long-arm quilting books. The latest, Less Stress Feathers, was just released in 2006. This innovative approach has revolutionized the quilting of feathers, easily and beautifully. Jodi's books and hands-on classes focus on using quick and easy methods to create unique freehand designs that personalize each and every quilt. In addition to her teaching and writing schedule, Jodi is a professional longarm quilter, who enjoys a wide customer base in Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio.

Shirley Stutz (OLAQ Member)

Ohio

A quilt maker for the past 23 years, Shirley Stutz, from southeastern Ohio, has evolved from a hand quilter to an award winning longarm quilter. This full time quilting teacher, designer, lecturer and author excites and motivates students with her enthusiasm, easy innovative techniques and down to earth approach to every quilt making activity. Every class and lecture includes an interesting trunk show of some of her hundreds of quilts. Shirley's personal quilts have won ribbons at many national shows, including AQS, NQA and MQS. Her recent book, Easy and Elegant Lone Star Quilts, published by C & T Publishing, provides a novel approach to making elegant quilts from as few as 16 pieces, in just a few hours. She is currently writing her next book, and working on a series of articles for a national quilting magazine. Adding international exposure to her appearances throughout the United States, Shirley has taught and lectured in both Germany and Canada.

Pat Waldron (OLAQ Member)

Ohio

Pat Waldron has traveled the complete gamut, from piecing and quilting by hand, to proficient longarm quilting, culminating in a career which finds her much in demand for her expertise in quilting technicalities. A sewer all her life, Pat developed an interest in quilt making in the early 1990's, after taking a class that introduced her to both hand piecing and hand quilting. It wasn't long before she learned that machine quilting was the quickest way to get those UFOs out of the closet. After several years of quilting on her home sewing machine, Pat purchased her APQS longarm, and a whole new world opened up. Transferring her DSM quilting design skills, coupled with continuing education with nationally recognized professionals, help from friends, and LOTS of practice, Pat soon became proficient and much in demand for her traditional quilting style. Soon, Pat opened her business, Purrfect Quilts. While the major focus of the business is longarm quilting, she is also recognized for extensive work in commissioned custom made quilts. Many of Pat's personal quilts, as well as those of her customers, have won Best of Show and other awards at quilt shows throughout Ohio, including Ohio State Fair, Lake Farm Park, Amish Country Quilt Show and Loudonville Street Fair. Pat generously shares her love of quilting, by teaching various classes at a local quilt shop, as well as private and group classes in her home. Because of her husband's career in the Air Force, Pat has enjoyed teaching students from all over the world.

Jamie Wallen

Michigan

Jamie Wallen entered the Quilting Community with a background in Fine Arts. After a longarm purchase in the late nineties, he began to develop his own style of quilting. During this time he developed a large and loyal community of piecers throughout the USA that "wanted him to put his unique style of work on their quilts". Eventually, he began mentoring new quilters in his area. It was during this period that he met and became friends with Nichole Webb, with whom he collaborated and released the book No Boundaries which includes Jamie's TM design Flurry Of Angels. In 2004, Jamie began teaching workshops and classes throughout the US. In 2005, Jamie began "Heading back to his Roots of Fine Art "WITH" the longarm". He has developed a new series of quilting techniques he calls "Thread Fusion" and continues to teach nationally. 2005 also brought Jamie into a new studio where he works and teaches workshops in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Jamie is presently also collaborating with Fine Artist Patrick Whalen on original hand dyed artist's cloth for longarm quilters use in artists' whole cloths. As Jamie says "I've found my home in the quilting community, and I'm going to explore every room".
